Thanksgiving Sabbath School: Action Edition

Closing Prayer Julia Zuckerman

RESPONSIVE READING

LEADER: "Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.' You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth."

CONGREGATION: "There is one who scatters, yet increases all the more. And there is one who withholds what is justly due, but it results only in want."

LEADER: "The generous man will be prosperous and he who waters will himself be watered. He who withholds grain, the people will curse him. But blessings will be on the head of him who sells it...He who trusts in riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like the green leaf."

CONGREGATION: "Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world and it is certain that we will not carry anything out. For the love of money is the root of all sorts of evil."

LEADER: "Be assured that with the measure you give will be the measure that you will receive. If you give much then you will receive much from the hand of God in a way and in the time frame that He deems proper. He who sows generously, will also reap generously."

CONGREGATION: "Give and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over shall men give unto your bosom. For with the same measure that you mete, it shall be measured to you again. Freely you receive, freely give."

LEADER: "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion. For God loves a cheerful giver."

CONGREGATION: "Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness and all these things will be added to you."
