CREATION HEALTH SEMINARS

JANUARY 25: Rest - refreshes, rejuvenates, regenerates and rebuilds mind, body and soul. Presenter: Rene Pidoux, M.D.

FEBRUARY 1: Environment - is the external space outside of us which affects what happens within us. Our larger environment (air and water quality) affects our health, but also our immediate environment (light, sound, aroma and touch). Presenter: Mark Papendick, MDiv.

FEBRUARY 8: Activity - includes both mental and physical movement and development. The mind and the body are intimately connected. A fit mind promotes a fit body, and a fit body promotes a fit mind. Presenter: Rene Pidoux, M.D.

FEBRUARY 15: Trust - a loving, all-powerful, all-knowing Creator God is the focus of this section. When we come to Him just as we are, He works to transform us and to re-create us in His image. Presenter: Lorayne Barton, M.D.

FEBRUARY 22: Interpersonal Relationships - personal connectedness with others in loving relationships has powerful effects in producing good physical and emotional health. Presenter: Mark Papendick, MDiv.

MARCH 1: Outlook - colors your perspective on life. Recent research suggests that your attitude influences your health and even impacts the progression of disease. The Gift of Hope, Love and Peace. Presenter: Doug Nies, PhD

MARCH 8: Nutrition - is the fuel that drives the whole system. Take time to evaluate your food intake. Research has consistently shown the importance of a good diet on your health, energy levels and longevity. Presenter: Lorayne Barton, M.D.
